

Conclusion Argumentative Essay Outline

To conclude, it is clear that the benefits of [argument] outweigh the drawbacks. It can be seen from [evidence 1], [evidence 2] and [evidence 3]. Therefore, governments should take steps to ensure that everyone has access to these advantages by introducing measures such as ____ [policy/programme etc.] ____ in order to make sure no one misses out on this opportunity for progress. Furthermore, increased awareness about this issue will help people understand why action needs to be taken now more than ever before. With a collective effort towards solving this problem, we can all work together towards creating a better future for ourselves and generations after us.